Respondent.

MOTION TO DEVIATE FROM CHILD SUPPORT GUIDELINES

() Petitioner () Respondent requests that the Court enter an order granting the following:

SECTION I

[one only]

a. MORE child support than the amount required by the child support guidelines. The Court should order MORE child support than the amount required by the child support guidelines because of:

[all that apply to your situation]

- 1. Extraordinary medical, psychological, educational, or dental expenses;
- 2. Seasonal variations in one or both parent's income;
- 3. Age(s) of the child(ren), taking into consideration the greater needs of older child(ren);
- 4. Special needs that have been met traditionally within the family budget even though the fulfilling of those needs will cause support to exceed the guidelines;
- 5. The amount of time each child will spend with each parent under the shared parental arrangement;
- 6. The direct and indirect financial expenses for each child as set forth in s. 61.30(11)(b)3, Florida Statutes;
- 7. Total available assets of mother, father, and child(ren);
- 8. Impact of IRS dependency exemption and waiver of that exemption;
- 9. Residency of subsequently born or adopted child(ren) with the obligor, including consideration of the subsequent spouse's income;
- 10. The comparative income of each parent, considering all relevant factors, as provided in s. 61.30(2)(a), Florida Statutes;
- 11. The station in life of each parent and each child;
- 12. The standard of living experienced by the entire family during the marriage;
- 13. The financial status and ability of each parent; and/or
- 14. Any other adjustment that is needed to achieve an equitable result, which may include reasonable and necessary expenses jointly incurred during the marriage.

Explain any items marked above: Unreimbursed psychological expenses are $500 per month and will be a continuing expense. Private school tuition is $1,000 per month and both parents agree to continue with private school.

b. LESS child support than the amount required by the child support guidelines. The Court should order LESS child support than the amount required by the child support guidelines because of:

[all that apply to your situation]

- 1. Extraordinary medical, psychological, educational, or dental expenses;
- 2. Independent income of child(ren), excluding the child(ren)'s SSI income;
- 3. Payment of both child support and spousal support to a parent that regularly has been paid and for which there is a demonstrated need;

- ___ 4. Seasonal variations in one or both parent's income;
- ___ 5. Age of the child(ren), taking into consideration the greater needs of older child(ren);
- ___ 6. The amount of time each child will spend with each parent under the shared parental arrangement;
- ___ 7. The direct and indirect financial expenses for each child as set forth in s. 61.30(11)(b), Florida Statutes;
- ___ 8. The comparative income of each parent, considering all relevant factors, as provided in s. 61.30(2)(a), Florida Statutes;
- ___ 9. Total available assets of obligee, obligor, and child(ren);
- ___ 10. Impact of IRS dependency exemption and waiver of that exemption;
- ___ 11. Application of the child support guidelines requires the obligor to pay more than 55% of gross income for a single support order;
- ___ 12. The station in life of each parent and each child;
- ___ 13. The standard of living experienced by the entire family during the marriage;
- ___ 14. The financial status and ability of each parent; and/or
- ___ 15. Any other adjustment that is needed to achieve an equitable result, which may include reasonable and necessary expenses jointly incurred during the marriage.
